BALDWIN PUI | HONG KONG

Baldwin Pui

Graduated with a diploma in Design Studies and Fashion Design at the Hong Kong Polytechnic University in 2000, the Hong Kong-born designer is the winner of the Hong Kong Designer Association Award as well as several regional design contests. They include the 2002 Hong Kong Young Fashion Designer Contest, the 2002 Asian Young Fashion Designer Contest in Singapore and the 2005 Hong Kong Young Design Talent Award. Baldwin's startling and witty designs, which come alive especially through his knitted patterns, are inspired by objects, crafts and folk toys from local culture and everyday living. In 2007, Baldwin, born 1974, launched an accessories brand, hoiming, with partner Hoi Ming Fung. The label is now sold through Harvey Nichols and select shop Cocktail in Hong Kong.
